- Asaph was a seer or prophet who wrote this prophecy 3000 years ago
- Israel was experiencing blessings and living in their land at the time, winning wars and ambitions to build their Temple with David as their King. It was at this time that he received this prophecy regarding the future.
- In it he sees that the chosen people of Israel would be wiped-out, and the land taken from them by their enemies.
- He sees 10 populations of Israel's neighbors joining a confederation whose purpose is to exterminate the Jewish people
- Israel would win and Damascus is destroyed, and Israel will now occupy their lands which will precipitate war with Gog and Magog

Name in Psalm 83	Modern Equivalent
The tents of Edom	Southern Jordan
The Ishmaelites	Saudi Arabia and portions of Jordan
Moab	Central Jordan
The Hagrites;	North-East Jordan
Gebal	Lebanon
Ammon	North-West Jordan
Amalek	Southern Israel
Philistia	Gaza
The inhabitants of Tyre	Lebanon
Assyria	Turkey (South-Eastern), Syria (North-Western), Iraq (North-Eastern)
The children of Lot (Ammon, Edom)	Jordan

- The nations listed in Psalm 83 are not listed in Ezekiel 38 & 39. There must be 2 separate wars that take place. The nations listed in Psalm 83 close to Israel form an inner ring while those mentioned in Ezekiel 38 & 39 for an outer ring of nations.
- The nations of Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Jordan, Syria, and Lebanon will all be defeated and occupied by Israel. Because of this Israeli conquest over the inner circle of the core surrounding Arab populations of Palestinians, Syrians, Saudi Arabians, Egyptians, Lebanese, and Jordanians, Israel's borders are enlarged, prosperity increases, and national stature is enhanced. (Israelestine: The Ancient Blueprints of the Future Middle East, Bill Salus)
- Other prophecy teachers, seem to differ slightly from this view, teaching that these nations will all simply be "annihilated" by Israel, in what is referred to as "The War of Extermination".
